

The International Association of Facilitators Code of Ethics for Facilitators

1. Client Service

We are in service to our clients, using our group facilitation competencies to add value to their work.

2. Conflict of Interest

We openly acknowledge any potential conflict of interest.

3. Group Autonomy

We respect the culture, rights, and autonomy of the group.

4. Processes, Methods, and Tools

We use processes, methods and tools responsibly.

5. Respect, Safety, Equity, and Trust

We strive to engender an environment of respect and safety where all participants trust that they can speak freely and where individual boundaries are honored. We use our skills, knowledge, tools, and wisdom to elicit and honor the perspectives of all.

6. Stewardship of Process

We practice stewardship of process and impartiality toward content.

7. Confidentiality

We maintain confidentiality of information.

8. Professional Development

We are responsible for continuous improvement of our facilitation skills and knowledge.
